	Jess stepped outside and what could she see?
	Ellie with a worm, balanced on her knee.
	Louis stepped outside, but suddenly he froze...
	Because a little ladybird had landed on his nose!
	Reggie stepped outside, and something fluttered past.
	It was an orange butterfly, flying very fast.
	Iris stepped outside, then sat on the floor...
	To watch a fuzzy spider climbing up the door.
	Etta stepped outside and moved a flowerpot
	The ants all scatted like lots of little dots.
	Henry stepped outside to hear what was there.
	He heard a busy bee, buzzing through the air.
	Polly stepped outside but brought something back to class.
	Jess said 'Yuck.. put that caterpillar back on the grass!'
